

This is what's included in Sparkling House Service's Estimate

1. Location of the home:

The area at where you are located and the size of the community you live in. Small rural communities are often on the lower end of the scale due to a relatively low workload.

2. Size of the space being cleaned:

The size of the home or office can be a good indicator for how much time, effort and (in some cases) products you'll have to put in to clean it.

3. Type of fee:

Move in/move out cleaning is hourly all other cleanings are flat rate.

4. Type of cleaning:

Routine cleaning, Deep cleaning, and move in/move out cleaning.

5. Condition of the space:

Sparkling house does a deep clean first and charge accordingly. Some spaces can be in rough shape and doing a deeper clean during the first visit can make the regular cleanings go more smoothly.

6. Occupants:

A space with only one occupant is generally easier to clean than one with multiple ones.

The messier the inhabitants, the more work it will take to clean on a regular basis. The floors get dirtier between cleanings and take more time to scrub each visit.

7. Extra services:

Sparkling house doesn't include cleaning the refrigerator or changing sheets as part of a cleaning routine cleanings. Some services have an additional fee include:

- Cleaning inside large appliances like the refrigerator or oven.
- Cleaning baseboards
- Washing windows inside and/or outside
- Doing laundry
- Washing and/or putting away dishes
- Changing linens
- Spot-cleaning carpets
- Cleaning outdoor spaces, like patios and patio furniture

8. Overhead costs:

Providing cleaning services isn't the only cost in the estimate. Other cost that should be taken into consideration are the following:

- Liability insurance
- Time spent traveling to and from the client
- Gas and maintenance costs for the vehicle Sparkling house take to and from the job
- Additional labor costs if Sparkling house need to hire extra help to manage my workload
- Materials, such as vacuum cleaners or cleaning products
- Self-employment taxes
- Health insurance
- Any marketing materials to promote our services
- Inflation (when Sparkling house considering a rate increase)
